

PROBATION OCCUPATIONAL GROUP [215]

PROBATION OFFICER TRAINEE

General Statement of Duties and Responsibilities

Under close supervision, receives a course of training and performs beginning level professional work for the purpose of acquiring knowledge, skill and competence in the field of probation work; performs related work.

Examples of Typical Tasks

Conducts court ordered investigations of criminal offense(s) to obtain detailed information about the offense, the offender's legal, economic and psycho-social history and the impact of the offense on the complainant/victim.

Prepares and submits written reports and recommendations using available technology.

Supervises probationers and provides supportive casework/counseling services. Refers probationers to social, governmental and community agencies and to other entities which may assist in their rehabilitation. Makes home visits to probationers and performs other field work. Corresponds with and visits relatives, community agencies and employers to ensure that probationers are adhering to the conditions of probation.

Prepares and maintains case records using available technology.

May be assigned to specialized units.

Operates a motor vehicle.

May be required to carry a firearm for certain assignments.

PROBATION OCCUPATIONAL GROUP [215]

PROBATION OFFICER TRAINEE (continued)

Qualification Requirements

A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college, including or supplemented by 30 semester credits in sociology, law, psychology, education, social work, criminology, rehabilitation counseling, counseling, guidance, or related courses that cover contemporary, cultural, social or psychological issues.

License Requirement

A motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York. This license must be maintained for the duration of employment.

Peace Officer Status

Eligibility for Peace Officer status must be maintained for the duration of employment.

Direct Lines of Promotion

This is a trainee class of positions, subject to City Personnel Rule 5.8.1. Appointment to this position is subject to a two-year probationary period. At the end of one year of satisfactory service, permanent employees in this title will advance, without further examination, to Probation Officer (51810). The second year of probationary service will be served in the higher title.